Subject: It's time for something different

Dear All,

It's been over 14 years since I started working with Novartis, we have interacted either professionally or personally during these 14 years. I did not want to wait till the last day to send a message. September 30, 2015 is my last day in this organization.

I would like to wish you all success and happiness in life.

In case you would like to connect with me:
